Notes

- We cannot provide an individual timetable at this stage, but this timetable lists all GCSE and A Level exams in the main exam period beginning on 13th May.
- These times and dates are dictated by the awarding bodies and cannot be changed.
- Practical exams in Art, Dance, Drama and Music will take place before this date.
- Statements of Entry will be issued for checking in January 2019.
- You can use the drop-down menus in the column headings to select the exams you are taking and thus make a personalised timetable.

Session Times

- Start times will be shown on your final timetable which is due to be issued just before the Easter break.

Paper code

- Searching online by Awarding Body and Paper Code will easily find specification information and past papers.

Subject: Paper

- In some papers there is a choice between Foundation and Higher tiers (F/H). Decisions about the correct tier will be made by teachers and this information will be given to you in January in your Statement of Entry.

Languages exams

- The Listening and Reading exams in each subject take place consecutively.

Clashes

- Occasionally a student will have 2 or more exams scheduled for the same session.
- We have to follow strict rules to resolve these clashes. If the total exam time in one session is more than 3 hours we can move an exam to the other session in the same day.
- There is no need to notify us of clashes: we will resolve these routinely later in the year, in discussion with the student.

Exam Contingency Day:

- ALL candidates must make themselves available upto and including the 26th June 2019 to sit any exams that may have been postponed during the season due to national or regional events impacting on the delivery of exams during May and June.

Notes

- We cannot provide an individual timetable at this stage, but this timetable lists all GCSE and A Level exams in the main exam period beginning on 13th May.
- These times and dates are dictated by the awarding bodies and cannot be changed.
- Practical exams in Art, Dance, Drama and Music will take place before this date.
- Statements of Entry will be issued for checking in January 2019.
- You can use the drop-down menus in the column headings to select the exams you are taking and thus make a personalised timetable.

Session Times

- Start times will be shown on your final timetable which is due to be issued just before the Easter break.

Paper code

- Searching online by Awarding Body and Paper Code will easily find specification information and past papers.

Subject: Paper

- In some papers there is a choice between Foundation and Higher tiers (F/H). Decisions about the correct tier will be made by teachers and this information will be given to you in January in your Statement of Entry.

Languages exams

- The Listening and Reading exams in each subject take place consecutively.

Clashes

- Occasionally a student will have 2 or more exams scheduled for the same session.
- We have to follow strict rules to resolve these clashes. If the total exam time in one session is more than 3 hours we can move an exam to the other session in the same day.
- There is no need to notify us of clashes: we will resolve these routinely later in the year, in discussion with the student.

Exam Contingency Day:

- ALL candidates must make themselves available upto and including the 26th June 2019 to sit any exams that may have been postponed during the season due to national or regional events impacting on the delivery of exams during May and June.
