If you missed your English lesson on Wednesday and did not finish your English Language mock this week, there's a mop up running during your PSHCE lesson today. Please register with your teachers and make your way to L10 to complete the paper in order to receive some prompt feedback next term!

To: Year 11

From: English department

Thanks for all your hard work this term – we've seen some impressive revision! In particular, well done for how sensibly you approached your Paper 1 mocks this week. There's a little treat in the PTH at lunch for any Year 11 student, and it's also the place where you can pick up past papers for Easter if you haven't already done so!
