

A level Tudor History Induction Work: Overview Phase 1

Welcome!

- Hello and welcome to the Tudor History A-Level Course! We are very much looking forward to navigating the Tudor era with you, to guide you and help you learn about life in Tudor England. Whilst investigating the lives and actions of some of our best known (and possibly most notorious) monarchs you will also consider the impact that they had on government, religion, foreign policy, society and economy. To ensure that you are prepared, the following induction work has been carefully arranged to give you a taste of what is to come and so that you are equipped to start the course with a strong foundation.

What work is being set?

- In this first phase, you have been set the following work:
 1. Watch the “Hidden Killers of the Tudor Home” documentary and answer the questions.
 2. Summarise your thoughts on the dangers of Tudor life.
 3. What was the Wars of the Roses? An overview of the wars from History.com.

How long should I spend on this work?

- It is expected that you spend 2.5 hours on this first phase of work.

Who should I send this work to and / or who should I contact with any questions?

- Mr Arkinstall pda@hardenhuish.wilts.sch.uk
- Miss Osei-Mensah kao@hardenhuish.wilts.sch.uk

How and when to submit work

Complete the activities below one by one, and if you can, create a Onenote to contain the work that you produce and share the link to it so we can see it. Alternatively... upload your work to the new Teams group which you will all be invited to. The tab that reads CLASS NOTEBOOK is what you will need. You will be able to upload documents to your own space.

Please submit work by the Phase 1 deadline – Monday 21st June
