Hardenhuish School

A High Performing Specialist Academy

What is Sixth Form like?

- A levels require a passion and dedication to subjects
- Subject teachers are experts in their field.
- Expectations of students are very high. Students will be expected to work much harder outside of lessons (e.g. the 50:50 mantra).
- Greater independence

Hardenhuish School

A High Performing Specialist Academy

What makes Hardenhuish unique?

- High quality of teaching and learning
- High quality daily tutoring
- Pastoral/Transition Managers dedicated to Sixth Form students.
- Wide range of over 25 A level subjects
- Large numbers mean that timetabling is flexible.
- Independent study skills programme in Year 12
- Personalised core curriculum with one or more from EPQ, Core Maths and L3 Sports Leaders
- Close monitoring of progress
- High quality destinations
- University and Post 18 options advice and guidance

Hardenhuish School

A High Performing Specialist Academy

What makes Hardenhuish unique?

- Purpose built building which includes two newly refurbished common rooms, designated study area complete with desktop computers, quiet study area, the Hungry Stag Café (with Costa Coffee), and free Wifi throughout so you can use your own devices.
- New (to Hardenhuish) students.
- Continued 3 way relationship between school/student/home.
- The best of both worlds: a very different experience for the students to the main school but continuity of provision at the same time.
