One last thing

What is your home postcode?

We use your postcode to:

- Show you the distance from your home of university courses and apprenticeships (while you're using a search tool we'll always give you the chance to adjust it).
- Understand how students from different parts of the UK are using the platform (we use measures like POLAR (participation of local areas) and IMD (Index of Multiple Deprivations)).

Please enter your home postcode and then click 'Next':

If you're interested in exploring the Unifrog platform, check out some of these suggestions:

- Take another Unifrog quiz like the Personality profile, Work environments profile, or Interests profile
- Use the Skills tool to record examples of your top skills
- Use the Activities tool to record examples of things you're proud of
- Use one of the shortlisting tools like the UK universities tool to create a new shortlist now that you've been able to learn more about yourself and suitable next-step options
- Create your CV / resumé and use examples you've recorded in your Skills or Activities tool
- Use the Unifrog events tool to search for upcoming webinars relevant to things you're interested in
- Use the MOOC tool to create a shortlist of MOOCs that relate to the careers or subjects you're considering
- Use the Read, Watch, Listen tool and filter by the subjects or careers you'd like to explore further
- Explore other courses available on the Courses tool that relate to the subjects or careers you're interested in, including virtual work experience options to build your skillset further
